EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD 2023

SUNDAY 9TH APRIL 2023

This day was made by the Lord;
We rejoice and are glad.
Alleluia, Alleluia, Alleluia!

A Prayer for Easter Day

Lord, the resurrection of your Son has given us new life and renewed hope. Help us to live as new people in pursuit of the Christian ideal. Grant us wisdom to know what we must do, the will to want to do it, the courage to undertake it, the perseverance to continue to do it, and the strength to complete it.

Fr Martin writes, RIP

Our prayers are asked for the repose of the soul of Harry Sweeney, who died recently.

May his soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The funeral of Mr Sweeney is expected to be celebrated, God willing, at All Saints on the morning of Wednesday 26th April.

Thank you,

Fr Martin writes,

"I am grateful to the editor for letting me use this newsletter to express my heartfelt thanks to all of you who kindly contribute so generously to the Easter Offering. I am, as always, touched and encouraged by your kindness.

May God reward your generosity by blessing you and yours with bountiful gifts, and keep you safe in the year ahead."

The GLOSSOP ROSARY: We will continue on Monday 10th April with the Glorious Mysteries.

Receiving The Eucharist this Lent:

Part 6: The Concluding Rites

WE ARE SENT In the Concluding Rites, we are sent out as one, receiving God's blessing to be his presence in the world in which we live.

Why is 'Mass' called 'Mass'?

It comes from the Latin words of the dismissal at the very end of Mass – Ite, missa est. We are sent out in peace to love and serve the Lord, as we have all got a mission to announce the Gospel of the Lord and glorify him in our lives. This means that our 'Amen' to the Lord in Holy Communion is to be an 'Amen' to him in all people and in the world in which we live, seeing him in others and serving him in others, so that what we celebrate at the Altar becomes a reality in our daily lives until we can gather again to celebrate the Eucharist, our great thanksgiving to almighty God.

'Human beings all over the world today need nourishment. And this nourishment is not just to satisfy physical hunger. There are other hungers – for love, for immortality of life, for affection, for being cared for, for forgiveness, for mercy. This hunger can be satiated only by the bread that comes from above. Jesus himself is the living bread that gives life to the world. His body offered for our sake on the cross, his blood shed for the pardon of the sins of humanity is made available to us in the bread and wine of the Eucharist transformed in the consecration.

'But the Eucharist does not end with the partaking of the Body and Blood of the Lord. It leads us to solidarity with others.

The communion with the Lord is necessarily a communion with our fellow brothers and sisters. And therefore, the one who is fed and nourished by the very body and blood of Christ cannot remain unaffected when he sees his brothers and sisters suffering want and hunger. Those nourished by the Eucharist are called to bring the joy of the gospel to those who have not received it. Strengthened by the living Bread we are called to bring hope to those who live in darkness and in despair.

A message from Bishop Patrick: Our vision for the Diocese of Nottingham is to become a more outward-looking missionary Catholic community. We are currently reorganising our parish and deanery structures, and to ensure we are supported in mission-focused initiatives the Diocese has launched a Mission Enabling Programme. We must also develop a financial plan, one that is well informed and meets our needs. Therefore after Easter we are commencing a consultative phase, with professional support, to gather opinions from parishioners about our funding strategies. If you are asked please consider giving your views, through a one-to-one conversation or an at-Mass survey. Please also pray for our mission and for this journey of discernment, that we can share the love and message of Christ more widely. A Marriage Enrichment Retreat for couples to rediscover the beauty and significance of the marital covenant in today's world is being held between Friday 19th and Sunday 21st May. Under the theme 'A Great Mystery: Man and Wife as an image of Christ and his Church' the weekend will be held in the Christian Heritage Centre, Lancashire, and includes full board and accommodation, as well as renowned speakers. More information is available from <https://christianheritagecentre.com/events/a-great-mystery-marriage-enrichment/>

A message from MISSIO: In 2022, our Parishes in Glossop raised £2,073.97 through Red Boxes and donations to MISSIO. Thank you! Our missionary community here in Glossop is part of a worldwide network of people supporting missionaries through prayer and financial aid. Our support has enabled missionaries to help children to learn in a safe environment and to turn away from conflict and towards faith in God. Visit mission.org.uk to find out more about how your support changes lives for the better.

Please remember in your prayers this week:

Philomena Brennan who asks for prayers for healing and relief from a long standing problem.

Don and Roseline McLeish who are unwell.
