FIFTEENTH SUNDAY OF 2024 - 14TH JULY

SEA SUNDAY - DAY OF SPECIAL PRAYER FOR SEAFARERS

Today, Sunday 14th July, we celebrate Sea

Sunday, a day of special prayer for seafarers -

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. Sea Sunday is the day when the Church prays for all who live and work at sea.

Your support makes a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need.

You can donate today, in church, or by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5.

Your donation is vital to enable Stella Maris (formerly Apostleship of the Sea) to continue its important work, please give generously, thank you.

A message from the Moloney family,

Marie Moloney, a former parishioner known to many at St Mary's Glossop, died peacefully in Dunstable in the presence of family on July 3rd 2024 aged 92. Her funeral service will take place at St Mary's Church, Dunstable on July 19th at 11 am. Enquiries to White Dove Funeral Home, 50 High Street South, Dunstable, Beds LU6 3HD. 01582 699884.

Fr Martin adds, May her soul, and the souls of all the faithful departed, through the mercy of God, rest in peace.

The Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion

write, If you are aware of anyone who cannot attend Mass but would like to receive Holy Communion, could you please contact Sue Nash at St Mary Crowned Church or Barbara Payne at All Saints Church.

Are you free next Sunday afternoon?

Come to St Mary's hall, have some lunch, watch a short film and listen to, or join in, a discussion about the 'big questions' about Christianity.

What's happening?

It's the WHY? Course, and it's free!

Next Sunday, St Mary's Hall, 1pm – 5.30pm.

Joint Garden Party:

Many thanks to all who helped with the Garden Party, which raised over £800 for church funds.

THE GLOSSOP ROSARY devotion continues on Monday 15th July with the Glorious Mysteries.

Our guest correspondent writes,

'How to get more from the Mass – Part 2

Have you noticed how we live in a world where there is so much stimulation of our senses – especially sound – that we barely even notice it? Until it's not there.

'Then, when things are suddenly quiet, we can feel...vulnerable, empty, alone. We may quickly try to fill the void, by switching on the TV, radio or some music. We may make a phone call, or go to our never ending 'to do' list. Something, anything, to break the solitude.

'And yet Our Lord Jesus actively sought that solitude. After his baptism, he went to the desert for 40 days. After a long, busy day teaching the crowds and healing the sick, he would take himself to a lonely place. Why? Because in that silence and solitude, he could commune with God; be at one with the Father.

'In our busy lives, we need to be unafraid to actively seek out that quiet solitude so that we, too, can sense that still, small voice of calm – the presence of God; the God who comforts us and nourishes us. When we take our seats in church, we are given the opportunity to step away from the frenetic activity of the world. Rather than checking the newsletter or looking around to see what's happening, we can spend some moments in silence, making ourselves aware of the presence of the Eternal.

'During the Mass, there are many small silences, but also two great silences. After the homily, we prayerfully reflect on the Word of God and its message for us. And after receiving Communion, we gratefully reflect on the gift of His Body and Blood.

'Let us not be afraid of those silences, but embrace them as sacred times through which we grow closer to the God who loves us.'

Please remember in your prayers this week:

Lynda Berrisford, Don and Roseline McLeish and Cath Broadbent (née Walsh) who are unwell. Philomena Brennan who asks for prayers for healing and relief from a long standing problem, and also her husband Martin who is unwell.
