SEVENTEENTH SUNDAY OF 2024 – 28TH JULY

Divine Renovation Update:

Thank you all for continuing to pray our parish prayer each day and thank you also to those of you who have invited someone to join us at Mass or at another event we have offered.

The PPC are continuing their work on our five year development plan to renew the life of our parishes, and are currently focussing on Evangelisation, which encompasses our mission of sharing the transforming love of Jesus Christ with others.

Work on the plan is providing a number of ways for us to reach out to our community.

The WHY? course has already run twice this summer and we have been very encouraged by the number of attendees and the depth of discussions held.

Much work has gone into improving the advertising and format of the course this year.

Next Saturday is your last chance to come to the WHY? course this year! So do come along to St Mary's Hall at 10am next Saturday, 3rd August!

We start with breakfast before watching a short film and then talking about the film, after lunch we watch another film, and talk about that too. People who have come this year have found the course to be thought-provoking and interesting within a friendly atmosphere. Admission free!

Next Sunday is 'labels Sunday' and we once again are invited to wear a name label and to pray for another parishioner during Holy Mass. Please do continue to pray for your fellow parishioner during the following week.

Prayer Boxes: Each church now has a prayer box for you to submit prayer requests.

Each week a member of the prayer group will take the requests to the prayer group who will include your intention in their prayers.

The Extraordinary Ministers of Holy Communion write,

If you are aware of anyone who cannot attend Mass but would like to receive Holy Communion, could you please contact Sue Nash at St Mary Crowned Church or Barbara Payne at All Saints Church.

Our guest correspondent writes,

'How to get more from the Mass – Part 4

'We Catholics are encouraged to make an examination of conscience at the end of each day.

'This may sound a gloomy thing to do, but it's always in the light of knowing that the God revealed to us through his Word made Flesh is a God who knows us better than we know ourselves, and loves us completely and unconditionally.

'Of course, he desperately wants us not to sin, but that is because sin damages our relationship with him and always leaves us unhappy, unfulfilled.

'So, our examination of conscience is a prayerful reflection on the events of the day in which we assess our thoughts, words and deeds, as well detecting God's presence in our life and discerning his direction for us.

'But it is always in a spirit of total trust in God's infinite love and forgiveness – he will always love us and yearns for us to be reconciled with him.

'If we get into the habit of this regular examination, we can better respond to the invitation at the start of the Penitential Act to "acknowledge our sins, and so prepare ourselves to celebrate the sacred mysteries."

'In truth, we are rarely given much time to do this from scratch, which is why it is good to develop the daily habit of examining our conscience, as well as spending some time before Mass starts by doing so again – but this time, over the previous week.

'Notice the invocations in the Penitential Act. They never say, "We are wretched sinners and deserve to be punished by you." They always dwell on the tender, merciful qualities of Our Lord:

"You were sent to heal the contrite of heart"

"You came to reconcile us to the Father and to one another" etc.

'Our God is a tender, compassionate and merciful God.'

THE GLOSSOP ROSARY devotion continues on Monday 29th July with the Mysteries of Light.
