FOURTEENTH SUNDAY OF 2024 - 7TH JULY

Our guest correspondent writes,

'How to get more from the Mass

In this series of short reflections, we will explore how we can get more from the Mass that we celebrate each Sunday.

We won't go through the Mass in a strict order, but today we will look at the beginning.

And the beginning.....is before we even leave our homes and head for church.

If we think of football supporters (please stay with me here), they don't suddenly start thinking of the match when they take their seats in the stadium; they have been thinking about it all week.

They will most likely have been reading about the team, checking up on injuries, interviews given by the manager, etc. They may have thought about the tactics for them to win. The day of the match will be a conscious buildup of anticipation – this is not just another day of the week. They will greet their fellow supporters, they will sing their songs, they will 'kick every ball' even though they are not on the pitch. And their emotions will be heightened as the drama unfolds before them.

We can learn from this.

We, too, come together as the local Church, we greet each other, we sing our songs, we closely focus on the readings and the prayers, and we respond to what happens before us.

If we are to get more from the Mass, then we cannot only think about it when we take our seats in church. Neither can we simply allow the Mass to happen, while we are merely physically present – we must be as engaged and involved as the football supporter; with all our hearts and minds. In future reflections, we will explore how we can do this.'

Next Sunday, 14th July, we will celebrate Sea Sunday, a day of special prayer for seafarers

Seafarers and fishers play a vital role in all of our lives, but they often work in difficult, hazardous conditions. Sea Sunday is the day when the Church prays for all who live and work at sea. Your support will make a big difference to seafarers and fishers in need. You can donate by visiting www.stellamaris.org.uk/donate, in church, or by texting 'SEA' to 70460 to donate £5. Your donation is vital to enable Stella Maris (formerly Apostleship of the Sea) to continue its important work - so please give generously. Thank you.

Labels Sunday –

This weekend you are invited once again to build up our sense of community by wearing a name label at Holy Mass, by greeting others and by praying for a fellow parishioner during Mass.

An event for you!

'We sit in small groups, about five of us in a group, we have something to eat and a cuppa and a chat. Then we watch a short film, we talk about the film, you can join in, ask a question, or just listen to other people. We listen to a bible reading and we pray our parish prayer together.'

What is this?

It's called the WHY? Course, and it's free!

Anyone can come – bring a friend if you want to!
